

Project Title	Student	Description	Project Title	Student	Description
Christian Leadership Analysis	John Wardlaw	The goal of John's project is to evaluate Christian leaders who work both in the church and in the work world. He has interviewed local leaders and is interning at a local church.	Lend a Hand for an Ear	Brittany Schilling	Throughout the year, Brittany has been collecting music and music equipment for Ten Broek Hospital of DuPont Louisville. Inspired by the music library of North Audubon Hospital and her passion for music, Brittany has studied music therapy and, ultimately, plans to create a music library for the Ten Broek.
Comic Strips	Matt Marks	Matt has performed a study of what makes an effective and amusing comic strip. Keeping his findings in mind, he has created his own comics, which he will be displaying and discussing.	Louisville Helps the Children	Ashley Newbern	Ashley's project has aimed to raise money for the Americans for African Adoptions Inc. organization. Having organized a community benefits dinner and fundraisers at her school and church, Ashley plans on making a huge contribution to the organization, which is dedicated to helping the children of Louisville.
Comparative Study of Western & Holistic Medicine	Allison McCall & Kate Smiley	This in-depth study and comparison of holistic and contemporary western medicine has entailed an explorer internship at Baptist Hospital Northeast, multiple interviews, and numerous shadowing opportunities with holistic practitioners. Additionally, Allison and Kate have participated in weekend workshops, fairs, and research.	Medical Fields	Tiffany Schindler	Her plans for the future in mind, Tiffany has been shadowing at Baptist Hospital Northeast to get a behind-the-scenes look at of the medical field. She has created a website and a brochure for use by other students who might be considering a profession in the field.
Cupid's Quest	Stephanie Martin	On a waiting list for a liver, herself, Stephanie is very passionate about organ donation – the focus of her senior project. In order to energize more people to become organ donors, Stephanie organized and participated in presentations at county high schools and Baptist Hospital Northeast designed to increase awareness and disperse myths about organ donation.	Mission to Cambodia	Hannah Brack & Whitney Forrest	Intrigued by the work of missionaries, Hannah and Whitney have dedicated their project to the study of mission work. Recently, they returned from a ten-day mission to Cambodia where they were able to interact with a number of long-term missionaries and the nation's impoverished people.
Custom House Design	Jaclyn Schofield	Working closely with a local architect, Jaclyn has delved into the world of architecture and worked to redesign a house that will suit the needs of physically handicapped individuals.	North Oldham High School Senior Project Evaluation	Chris Hollis	Chris has been investigating many senior project formats that are utilized throughout the country. Using this information, he's looking for ways that North Oldham can improve its own setup.
Driving Awareness	Eddie Jones	The purpose of Eddie's project has been to raise vehicle safety awareness for the drivers at North Oldham High School.	Performance Project	Elaina Hall	Elaina is doing a year-long vocal performance study. She has been working with her voice teacher of six years, performing at numerous events, and auditioning with success for the local and state Jr. Miss Program and music colleges.
Exquisite Cheerleading	Chelsey Link	Chelsea developed a cheerleading program for special needs children. As the culminating event of her project, her squad performed during the half-time of a North Oldham football game.	Portable N64	Geoff Hardin	Her final product will compile her repertoire into a demo which she has personally been asked to make and send for the Sony recording studio in Nashville.
Filmaking	Stephanie Whonsetler	An independent hands-on study of filmmaking as an art and business. Stephanie's project includes a trip to Hollywood, a tour of Sony Studios, MEIRC Conference, interviews with people in the business, and several productions of shorts. The organization of a film festival is currently in progress.	Seeking the Summit	Abbie Arthur	Having quite the knack for electrical engineering, Geoff challenged himself to redesign the Nintendo 64 hardware into a portable device. His portable system will be demonstrated and displayed alongside the original Nintendo 64.
How A Political Campaign Works	Ally Bird	During the fall of 2004, Ally and Tyler interned under Congresswoman Anne Northup's re-election campaign committee. Participating in everything from fundraisers to door-to-door campaign advertising, they had the opportunity to explore the deepest inner-workings of a political campaign and helped Congresswoman Northup to win the election with over 60% of the vote.	Learning to Ride	Ashlie Simpson	The focus of Abbie's project has been to strengthen her church's youth group by enhancing the relationships between its members. To do this, she organized a retreat for her youth group to Perfect North Slopes. The numerous activities and discussions on the retreat were designed to bring the youth group closer together.

Project Title	Student	Description
Self-Improvement Project on the Drums	Nelson Heard	Because of his passion for drumming, Nelson has dedicated much time to improving his skills and broadening his repertoire of styles. Putting his abilities to good use, Nelson and a friend will be recording an original worship album, later this year.
Senior Sisters-Mentor Program for 5th Grade Girls	Natalie Hartman & Natalie Schoenbaechler	Natalie and Natalie created a mentoring program called Senior Sisters for 5th grade girls. Having meetings with the girls every other Thursday, they talk to them about important issues and values in life, such as self-image, responsibility, friendship, and attitude.
Student Voice on Reforming Education	Andrew McCormick	Andrew, with the help of school faculty members and several other students, has facilitated forums in high schools throughout the state on student voice with regard to education reform. He will use the opinions expressed in these forums to create a student-based recommendation on reform, which he will present to the Kentucky Board of Education in April.
To Teach or Not to Teach	Meredith Geers	Meredith has spent numerous hours in elementary and middle school classrooms. She has interviewed many educators and attended several meeting and conferences to delve deeper into education as a profession. As a result of her project, Meredith has become more aware of the degree she hopes to pursue in college and the many careers she may encounter pertaining to education in the future. Come by and talk to Meredith about her experiences and how it has impacted her views on teaching and education.
Traditional Climbing	Matt Parker	Matt has been learning a style of rock-climbing, known as "traditional climbing." In college he plans to study Outdoor Recreation and Leadership with the intentions of becoming a rock-climbing guide.
Training Therapy Dogs	Erin Campbell	Erin will be showing off what she has learned about training therapy dogs. Bogart, a dog in training will be with her, as well as a video slideshow of Bogart in his classes.
Unified Sports	Mae Marks	Passionate about sports and children, Mae has performed an in-depth study of the correlations between sports participation and social skills development in children with disabilities.

North Oldham High School

For More Information go to:
www.mustangs.org/academics/seniorproject/index.html
 or e-mail:
dgreen@oldham.k12.ky.us; bsapp@bsapp.com

